An awesome app that allows you to get rid of that horrible space-eating black navbar and replace it with fancy showing on swipe navigation panel. Everything is themable: buttons, panel, glow-effects and more Long click and short click actions for all buttons Can add 20 different actions for buttons (kill app, add custom app, etc.) Low ram consumption (~< 8 MB of RAM) Customisable activation mode (Swipe/Touch) Swipe mode to navigate the panel like paranoid's pie. XPOSED(safe) or build.prop mod(dangerous) to hide softkeys on your device. All devices with android 4.0+ are supported! Lots of other customizations and modes. Found any bugs? Have any requests? Report over here >> UDN's Issue tracker Click here to download this APK | Mobile Link Q: Only button that works is "Recents" Why?A: Looks that you don't have Root permissions on your device. Google for more info... Q: UDN overlaps information on the screen!!1 How Do I fix it? A: That's correct behavior! It is impossible to act another way! And No, I cant overlay nothing in the zone of real navbar Don't ask!! Q: Activated "hide real navbar" option, but nothing happened! What I did wrong?A: That means that app can't obtain root permissions, or your device don't have busybox installed.Q: App can't restore original navbar.A: Rare bug You can manually restore navbar by removing all "gemu.hw.mainkeys=1" lines from /system/build.prop . Mail me if you need help.Q: Android 4.3. can't hide notification. Is it possible to fix?A: No, since google fixed bug I used to hide notification. There's no way to hide notification anymore Q: OK, I found bug! What should I do???A: post it to issues list I'll be happy to fix it!
